

Mr Manoj Vasudevan
CEO, Thought Expressions

Manoj Vasudevan is two-time Semifinalist at the World Championship of Public Speaking, USA, ranking amongst the top 100 speakers worldwide. He is a Management consultant, Leadership coach and Communications expert with 20 years experience in project management, consulting, speaking, coaching and training. He has worked with many major MNC clients in Asia, Australia, US and Europe. Manoj has excellent analytical, interpersonal, communication and leadership skills. Manoj holds an MBA from Imperial College London.

Manoj is a two-time Semifinalist at the World Championship of Public Speaking, USA in 2012 and 2013, ranking amongst the top 100 speakers worldwide. He is a 3 time National Public Speaking Champion. Manoj is the co-author of the Amazon #1 Bestseller in Public Speaking “World Class Speaking in Action”.

Manoj has coached individuals from 27 nationalities including Corporate Senior executives, professionals, CEOs, managers, United Nations diplomats, and celebrities. Manoj is a sought-after Keynote speaker and World-Class public speaking coach, who has spoken in 10 cities across the world with sessions that are thought-provoking, engaging, energizing and entertaining.

Synopsis:

Leadership Lessons from the Mouse Trap

This sought-after leadership talk is both thought-provoking and mindset changing. The emphasis of this talk to challenge the core beliefs of what it takes to be an effective leader, so that project managers adopt a leader mindset to meet the daily challenges they face.

This engaging, energizing and entertaining talk will

- Help you to develop your leadership skills and of those in your team
- Enhances team work, ensures ownership and empowers your team
- Encourages your team to communicate, collaborate and connect with the big picture
- Replaces competition with cooperation in the workplace
- Increases productivity, introduces purpose and incentivizes teamwork
- Position you to better lead your team for converting visions into reality