

Section 2:

Short bio-data of the Nominee (max 500 words):

My name is Jose Mari Rubi-Cruz. I am the incoming Program Management Office Coordinator at the Singapore R&D Centre of Yokogawa Electric International. My responsibilities include resource management, human resource development, and knowledge transfer of good execution practices across all projects.

Before this role, I was involved in project delivery as the Technical Publication Group Leader in the same company. In this capacity, I was leading and advising technical publication project teams in India, Japan, and Singapore. Yokogawa provides solutions for the industrial automation industry which includes refineries, power generation facilities, and chemical plants.

I have a Bachelor of Science in Business from De La Salle University Dasmarias in the Philippines and a Master of Science in Knowledge Management from Nanyang Technological University in Singapore. My other interests include reading, public speaking, and dragon boat paddling.

Short description of how nominee intend to contribute to the chapter (max 500 words):

I appreciate the trust of the membership when you elected me as a Board Member last term. Despite being a new face, I was given the chance to understand the nature of our society and to execute the many programs our society organized to uplift the project management practice ability of our membership base. From being a new face, I have become a familiar cadre to most of you in our gatherings.

Just like what I stated when you first elected me as part of the Board, I do not have a fixed platform similar from a traditional politician. What I can vouch for is my volunteer performance as credential on how I would perform.

I am a firm believer in lifelong learning and I fuel this passion by trainings and engaging in volunteer activities. For me, academic theories and frameworks are empirical lessons from successes and failures of the past. Engaging in volunteer activities, on the other hand, is an opportunity to serve, learn, and put theories into application. Volunteer opportunities are a testament to the value of internal motivation and teamwork minus the monetary rewards.

It would be a great privilege if I be given the chance to serve again, this time as Assistant Secretary. I appreciate your support in my quest to realize this goal and serve the society anew.
