Neha Tripathi is a certified Project Management Professional (PMP). She has attained Master of Science from University of California Santa Barbara, USA in 2008. Previously, she was also associated with STMicroelectronics Asia Pacific, Singapore and Nanyang Technological University, Singapore and has been contributed to several projects with her technical and managerial skills. Neha has been actively involved in Project Management Institute, Singapore Chapter as a Board Member for last two year (2011-2013).

Short description of how nominee intend to contribute to the chapter (max 500 words):

Since I attained PMP certification in 2010, I have been profoundly interested in project management; its concepts, methodologies and standards. Project Management Institute is an exponentially growing community of experienced leading project managers from all over the world whose prim aim and vision is to add new project management technologies to ease the project execution procession within maintaining triple constraint and delivering the project successfully. Singapore Chapter inherits similar visions from PMI and has been continuously organizing events to provide the members a potential platform for collaboration, sharing and networking.

For the last two year (2011-2012), as a SPMI Board member, I have been organizing Focus Group Events. Focus Group Events are known for its peculiar way of execution in which we try to instill participatory culture among the member. The events are facilitated by a subject matter expert and are focused on the analysis of a case study by members. Organizing the events was a fabulous experience for me where I implemented many ideas to enhance quality of the events by inviting well-recognized SMEs and by carefully choosing the case studies of common interests. Last year, several boot camps for certifications like PMP, PgMP, PMI-ACP has been organized and recognized as one of the most successful events by the participants.

I am thankful to all SPMI members who actively supported the chapter and continuously providing their valuable feedback to us. I hope to get your confidence in me yet again for another year to serve the PMI Singapore Chapter better than last year. I am confident that with your support I would be able to keep up to your expectations and add value to our members.

Thank You!!
